

My Alphabet Storybooks

Read the part that suits your reading ability - take turns!

Each story begins with an introduction to the character, it's shape and sound.

You will then go on an imaginative adventure with the character.

Fluent reader

Story or rhyme featuring lots of alliterative words. Also available to download and listen to.

Beginner reader

These words can be read by just sounding and blending the letters into words. t a p → tap
Letters are introduced in 'satp' order as detailed on pages 2-3.

Early reader Sentences made up of words using the 26 letters of the alphabet in their most phonically regular form. Also included are a few carefully chosen high-frequency 'tricky' words such as 'are' and 'the' with irregular sounds. Irregular parts are in blue.

Note: All text is printed on a shaded background, to help those with visual difficulties.
