

With your finger, or a pencil, show Max through the maze to the fox in the box.

How many boxes does he pass on the way?

Write the number in the box.

Note to Parents: Following paths promotes hand and finger coordination and pencil control. To extend this activity, you could ask your child to try out different routes to the fox.